DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with us, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

This duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or renewed, extended, varied or reinstated as applicable).

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer, ought to know; or

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the contract in respect of a claim, cancel the contract, or both.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning

MATERIAL CHANGES

It would be prudent to advise Us of any material change that may affect this insurance as disclosed in this proposal.

DECLARATION OF PROPOSER

I/We acknowledge and declare that the answers and statements in this application are correct to the best of my/our knowledge and belief and that no information has been withheld which may affect the insurer's decision to accept this application or the terms of the proposed policy.

I/We also consent to:

- the use of personal information about me/us for the purposes shown in the Privacy Statement; and
- the disclosure of personal information about me/us to, and obtaining personal information from, other parties, including those shown in the Privacy Statement, for any of these purposes.

I/We confirm that if I/we have disclosed personal information about any other person, I/we am/are authorised to:

- disclose to you personal information about that person and to consent to its use for the purposes shown in the Privacy Statement, and
- consent to disclose to, and obtaining of other personal information about that person from, other parties including those shown in the Privacy Statement, for any of those purposes.
